The Honorable A. Leon Higginbotham, Jr. Memorial Lecture

Time: 5:30pm

Location: Silverman 240B

After Obama: Eight Years of Success
More Work Remains - A Case for Reparations

Congresswoman Barbara Lee
Presented by the Department of Africana Studies

The 2016 Higginbotham Lecture will be presented by Ms. Barbara Lee, U.S. Representative for California's 13th Congressional district. Congresswoman Lee was Chair of the Congressional Black Caucus and Co-Chair of the Congressional Progressive Caucus.

The Honorable A. Leon Higginbotham Lecture was inaugurated in 1989 in honor of Judge Higginbotham's contributions to the American legal and scholarly communities. This annual Africana Studies lecture brings to campus a distinguished scholar or public servant whose work focuses on issues in the African American community of either historical or contemporary interest in the areas of history, social justice or law.

The lecture is free and open to the public.
